

International Curriculum at NMSU:

A Summary of Programs, with a list of General Education and Viewing the Wider World Offerings for Spring 2023

Compiled by the NMSU International Working Group, Committee on Curricular Development, 11/8/22

Contact: Neil Harvey (Dept of Government: 575-646-4935) nharvey@nmsu.edu

NMSU offers many options for students seeking to broaden their knowledge of international issues. The following pages list the majors, supplemental majors, certificates, and minors with a significant international focus. In addition, all classes with a General Education or Viewing the Wider World designation are listed, and those that will be offered in Fall 2023 are noted. Other courses with international content that are offered within majors but are not designated as General Education or Viewing the Wider World classes are not listed here.

International research and study programs are also included at the end of this document. For more information about study abroad programs, please see: <https://oel.nmsu.edu/educationabroad/>
