

NEW MEXICO STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF GOVERNMENT
HOMECOMING 2017

Invites you to a Colloquium
Jose Uranga (NMSU, Govt '69)

“Perspective on a sea-change in the contemporary political, environmental, and regulatory landscape from a 30-Year Environmental Law veteran.”

4.00-5.30 pm

Thursday, October 26, 2017

Nick Franklin Seminar Room, Breland Hall, Room 179

Jose Uranga, the eldest of seven children, graduated from Carlsbad High School and is a first generation NMSU graduate. He received his BA in Government from NMSU in 1969 and earned his Masters in the Environmental Sciences from the University of Texas and a Juris Doctorate from Georgetown University Law Center. Jose practiced environmental law for over three decades serving as a prosecutor for state and federal agencies as well as an in-house corporate counsel for several Fortune 200 companies. One of his prestigious appointments was Special Assistant to the Attorney General of the United States during the Carter administration.

More information: Patricia Vargas, pvargas@nmsu.edu ; (575) 646-4936